1 PROCEEDINGS
 2 JUDGE WILLIAMS: Thank you. Please be 3 seated. Good afternoon, everyone and on behalf of 4 Judge Cox and myself, my colleagues on the Circuit
 5 Court, my colleagues on the District Court, my 6 colleagues on the Court of Special Appeals. Today we 7 meet to honor members of the Baltimore County Bar
 8 Association who have passed away since August of 2013.
 9 Gordon Boone and I years ago had a
 10 discussion about this very event and we both agreed 11 that it is perhaps the most important function of our 12 Bar Association for those men who we honor today 13 touched the lives of many of us who are here today and 14 it is our honor to recognize them. I call upon the 15 Honorable Judge Judith Ensor to give today's 16 invocation.
 17 JUDGE ENSOR: Good afternoon. Let us pray.
 18 Merciful Father, thank you for allowing us this time to 19 reflect upon and honor of the lives of our recently 20 departed family members, mentors, friends and 21 colleagues. These six treasured members of our

Page 6

1 community, Jim Beach, Jr., Claude L. Callegary, Wilbur
 2 Jensen, Charlie Kountz, Jr., Russ White and Joe Wase
 3 were extremely talented attorneys who served their 4 clients with distinction and brought honor to our 5 profession.
 6 Thank you for bringing these extraordinary
 7 gentlemen into our lives. May this afternoon's
 8 Memorial Service remind us of their many gifts, inspire 9 us to follow the example they have set and bring us all 10 comfort and peace. We ask this in your name, Amen.
 11 JUDGE COX: We will now recognize Glen 12 Lazzaro, who serves as the Chairperson Memorial 13 Committee that has organized this afternoon's event.
 14 MR. LAZZARO: Thank you, Judge Cox, Judge
 15 Williams, Judge Tirabassi, members of the judiciary, 16 members of the Association and family and friends. It
 17 is my proud honor to be Chairperson of the Memorial 18 Committee this year and to introduce today's speakers.
 19 We do this once a year and, as the Judges indicated, 20 this is our opportunity to reflect and remember those 21 being honored, their careers, their personal lives and

1 the contributions they made to the Association. I do
 2 thank everyone for being here today.
 3 This year's list is a short list,
 4 thankfully. And when you read the names, as the Judges 5 have already indicated, on this list, you realize the 6 enormous legal talent that was possessed by these 7 individuals.
 8 Our first speaker is speaking on behalf of 9 his father, James G. Beach, Jr., who was actually 10 President of this Association when I was installed, 11 when I was sworn in, 1986. He was a stalwart of the 12 legal community. And his son is here, James G. Beach, 13 III, to speak on his father's behalf.
 14 MR. BEACH: Good afternoon, Judges. Good 15 afternoon everybody, members of the judiciary from the 16 District Court and Circuit Court, Court of Appeals,
 17 Court of Special Appeals, and any and all distinguished 18 guests. I saw Mr. Shellenberger.
 19 If it please the Court, my remarks are 20 going to be brief. Many of you knew my father. And he 21 was born -- let me start by saying that my condolences

1 go out to anyone else who was here who has lost a
 2 family member this year. My father was born in Hebron, 3 Maryland, a town of 350 people. He was the son of 4 James Gordy Beach, and that's how they talked there.
 5 He worked on cars. My grandfather's
 6 Chevrolet dealership, my father worked on cars most of 7 his young life and into a adulthood. He was also the 8 first person in the town of Hebron to go to college. E
 9 went to Washington College in 1949 -- excuse me, '48, 10 where he met my mother. He graduated in '51. My 11 mother graduated in '52 and six days later I was born.
 12 I was the 530th person in Hebron, just to give you some 13 indication how it had grown by "leaps and bounds" in 21 14 years.
 15 In any event, I grew up on a farm of 86
 16 acres. I had a wonderful plate. I didn't have to ever 17 worry about crossing the street because no cars ever 18 came there. My dad continued to work at his father's 19 garage and my mother was fortunate enough to begin a 20 career in television, being a weather girl at WBOC in 21 Salisbury in 1955, a career which continued until 1971.

1 It was always assumed by my father and by 2 everybody in the family that he was a logical heir to 3 take over the dealership and the garage when my 4 grandfather decided to slow down. So he got a degree
 5 in accounting and he continued to work in the business, 6 learned the business. The unfortunate part is, my 7 grandfather never slowed down and he never got to work
 8 the business, to take over the business.
 9 So in 1959 he said the heck with it and he 10 moved me and my mother to Baltimore, a major career
 11 move from a garage mechanic to a lawyer but he started
 12 law school up here. And he was ready to go back 13 anytime. If my grandfather had said, "Come on Beach, 14 come down here and run this place, I'm done," he would 15 have given up law school. He would have given up the 16 practice of law in the first few years but that never 17 happened and was destined not to ever happen.
 18 My father graduated from the University of 19 Baltimore. He also attended University of Maryland.
 20 He was very fortunate to be a law clerk to the 21 Honorable J. Gilbert Prendergast. And if any of you

1 remember -- Mr. Lyons sitting here -- anybody that 2 remembers Judge Prendergast will remember him, as I
 3 said when I met him -- I was 12 years old -- he's the 4 sternest man I ever met. He frightened me instantly
 5 but he was also, as everyone said, one of the fairest 6 judges on the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City. My 7 father clerked for him and in summertime he clerked for 8 Judge Carter, who was known for sentencing people to 9 death. So between the two of them he learned a great 10 deal about the practice of law.

11 He graduated in 1963 and I think the most 12 fortunate turn of events in his career was that he went 13 to work for the law firm of Franz, Rouzer, Tabler &
 14 Miles, Walter Tabler at the time, a legendary trial 15 lawyer, and mentored my father almost from the day he 16 walked in the door. At the time not too many people 17 were doing domestic relations. This was 1963, 1964.
 18 And I never met Herb Myerberg but I've heard so many 19 stories about him.

20 And one of the stories is that when my 21 father decided to take referrals from some of the

1 larger firms downtown because no one was doing it, he 2 turned to Herb Myerberg to learn how to practice
 3 domestic relations. And Herb mentored him for a good
 4 many years and my father to the day he died owed a debt
 5 of gratitude to Herbie Myerberg. He was the Dean at 6 the time.

7 While all this was going on, my father
 8 married -- my parents had divorced and my father 9 married Peg D'Ambrogi and they were married 48 years at 10 the time that he passed away in April of this year.
 11 They had two children, my half brother and sister, 12 Philip and Jennifer. And in the beginning they were 13 living in Baltimore City. They were actually in 14 Elkridge Estates and Peg finally had enough of it. And 15 if she had enough of it my father had to have enough of 16 it.

17 So in 1970 after learning all he could 18 learn with Walt Tabler and his partners, he moved his 19 practice and his home out to Baltimore County. I was 20 fortunate enough that he bought a house right down the 21 street from me. My senior year of high school I got to

1 spend, all I had to do was walk down the street.
 2 He joined White, Mindel, Clark & Hill. And 3 if Walter Tabler was a legendary trial lawyer, so was 4 George White. And he learned and soaked up as much as 5 he could from 1970 to 1977. But let me just tell you a 6 little aside again for the people that are here that 7 remember the Towson House when it was in its heyday.
 8 That's when my father knew he arrived because he was 9 accepted at the Towson House. People would save a seat 10 for him at the big, round table in the corner.

11 He also became a certified Towsonite
 12 because he wore a white belt and white patent leather
 13 boots. That was the outfit -- if any of you remember
 14 Tom Turavich, who was Secretary of the County
 15 Council -- on the front page of the Towson Times in an 16 outfit.

17 In any event, when he started his own
 18 practice he affiliated with Chris Kahl, and it was 19 Beach and Kahl for several years until Chris was 20 appointed to the bench. Shortly thereafter, he 21 affiliated with Richard Cadigan, who at the time was a

1 noted corporate lawyer, and with the Honorable Tim
 2 Martin. And it was Beach, Cadigan & Martin until the 3 early 2000's.

4 He was very fortunate in his time. Not 5 only was he a good lawyer but he was very fortunate 6 when his practice began to build that he had some very 7 high-profile clients. He represented John Unitas's 8 first wife and that kind of set him on the path and 9 from then on there was no other case that came to 10 through door but domestic. And he continued that.

11 In 1991 at the age of 60 after a rigorous 12 three-year trial, you know, high-profile case he was 13 worn out. And he retired to his home in Venice,
 14 Florida. My brother and my sister and I stayed up here 15 in the cold. Both of us, both my brother and I are 16 attorneys. After 2003 my brother said the heck with 17 the snow, the heck with this, I'm going down and shovel
 18 sand if I have to. And he did. He moved three miles 19 from my father and has stayed there.

20 He didn't really have enough to do when he 21 went down there. He hadn't developed a plan. He knew

1 he just wanted to move to Florida. Fishing and golf
 2 are the two staples in Florida life. He did neither.
 3 What he did was kind of get under his wife's feet a 4 lot. They did have a boat and they spent a little bit 5 of time on it but basically after five years my 6 stepmother, who is the daughter of a full-blooded
 7 Italian guy who has "a little bit of this" from Dallas, 8 Texas, said, "If you don't find something to do I'm 9 going to have you killed." And that's an honest to 10 goodness quote because I remember it. And at that time 11 her father was still alive so she had to work.
 12 So he didn't want to go back to work but 13 what he did do was he took over the Venice Boat Parade,
 14 which may not sound like a lot but in Venice, Florida
 15 the Boat Parade is a year-round planning event and it
 16 is one of the most spectacular parades you've ever 17 seen. It's the first Tuesday in December and there's 18 as many as fifty boats. And it's like herding cats 19 when you're trying to get these people together.
 20 That's what my father did for seven years so at least 21 it kept him occupied.

1 But what really happened that changed the 2 retirement, I guess, is he got together or hooked up
 3 with some very successful real estate developers down 4 there and he worked with them for a while and worked in 5 the office. And they looked at him finally in 2000 and 6 said, "Hey, Beach, we want you to be our lawyer. We 7 want you to watch our back." So with some urging in 8 2001 he took and passed the Florida Bar exam and went 9 to work for the development company. It was very 10 successful. My father was fortunate enough to make a 11 lot of money.
 12 I will tell you a funny story. He called 13 me one day and he said, "Beach, you're not going to 14 believe this." We called each other by our last names 15 our whole life. He said, "You're not going believe 16 this. I'm 12 miles offshore in international waters in 17 a 55-foot boat and we're signing contracts for $12 18 million. He said, "It's a hell of a long way from 19 Hebron."
 20 But the pace really was a little too much.
 21 He did it for about five years and then he retired for

1 good. And back under his wife's feet because she was,
 2 you know, she had never worked during their marriage
 3 and she was younger than him and so she made him take 4 up other hobbies. But the point is he at least filled 5 his time in retirement if it wasn't fishing and golf.
 6 Any lawyer in this room that had a case was 7 my father will remember he was a tough negotiator but 8 eminently fair and he always tried to work out every 9 case he was ever involved in. Those same lawyers will 10 remember that my father was also a very skilled trial
 11 lawyer and if he couldn't work it out he wasn't afraid
 12 to get in the trenches and handle his client's 13 business. He counted among his friends and his 14 colleagues Earl Plumhoff, the late Bruce Kaufman, Dan 15 Thomas, Wally Clyde and many others of the Domestic 16 Relations Bar.
 17 The thing I remember most about my father 18 is that he never once forgot where he came from. He 19 was still a Hebron boy at heart. He was just at home 20 in a tuxedo as he was in jeans and cowboy boots. Any 21 of you who remember when he turned 50 in 1981 I had a

1 billboard erected in Towson in his honor and he was 2 dressed in a flannel shirt, cowboy boots and National 3 Bohemian beer. Those were his three passions. He 4 never forgot he was from Hebron. He never forgot that 5 he grew up in a town of 350 people, that we didn't have 6 a stoplight until long after we were gone. He often 7 referred to him even in his late days as "just a 8 hillbilly lawyer from Hebron." I will miss him very 9 much. Thank you.
 10 MR. LAZZARO: Thanks, Jim. Claude
 11 Callegary was an old warhorse, an old sage who 12 practiced law for over 60 years. And speaking in his 13 memory today is his daughter, Ellen Callegary.
 14 MS. CALLEGARY: Thank you. Members of the 15 judiciary, esteemed colleagues, what a delight it is to 16 be with you to talk about Claude Callegary, who died at 17 the age of 92. When I think about the qualities that I 18 loved the most about my father, I think about how he 19 treated everyone with respect and dignity.
 20 He knew the name of the man who picked up 21 our trash and treated him with warmth and respect every

1 time he came, just as he warmly greeted the judges he 2 appeared before and the Presidents with whom he spent
 3 time at the White House. As Senator Mikulski said
 4 about Claude, as a veteran advocate and Marylander he 5 was a true patriot who always valued service over self.
 6 Paul Sarbanes was a really good friend to 7 my father and continues to be to me and my family. And 8 he described my father as a superb national head of 9 Disabled American Veterans and that concern continued 10 throughout his life. He was just a terrific guy and 11 had a lot of concern for the people he represented. He 12 had a wonderful sense of humor and it was an occasion 13 to just sit and talk with him. It was just great being 14 in his presence.
 15 My father was the son of an Italian
 16 immigrant barber who came to Montreal where he met my 17 beautiful French Canadian grandmother and they moved to 18 Baltimore to raise horses. When in 1929 the stock 19 market fell and the depression hit, they were thrown 20 out of their house and my father had to go to work in a 21 factory. He worked in the cotton mills at the age of

1 13 and later worked 12 hours a day in a Baltimore
 2 distillery. He went to the old Cathedral School,
 3 downtown Baltimore, until the seventh grade.
 4 And the story he tells about the nuns is 5 that the nuns knew how poor he was -- and he was a tall 6 guy, anybody who remembered Claude -- he was always 7 hungry because he didn't have enough food. And so the 8 nuns would have him take the sandwiches down to the 9 poor kids and in the stairwell he would eat those 10 sandwiches. And they knew that he would eat the 11 sandwiches because he was the poor kid. And that's how 12 he grew up. But with that he brought such a sense of 13 joy and life to everybody he met and everything that he 14 did, just extraordinary.
 15 So he always wanted to become a lawyer.
 16 His father, being a barber in Baltimore, many, many of 17 his patrons were lawyers. And so my father, you know, 18 got to hear the stories and got to learn about that and 19 that's what he really wanted to do but, remember, he 20 had to drop out in the seventh grade. He enlisted in 21 the Army in 1940 and by 1942 he was in combat as a

1 young sergeant in charge of communications in the 2 Aleutian Islands.
 3 And he talked about, he had World War I 4 combat uniforms with no cold protection so he almost 5 lost one of his ears. And he talks about the 6 unremitting bombardment and how you just could not 7 sleep until you got so exhausted that you slept even 8 when the bombardment, you know, the noise was just so 9 great you would still sleep.
 10 He returned to the United States as an Air
 11 Cadet and was assigned to the Fifth Air Force in New 12 Guinea and the South Pacific. And while serving with 13 the 333rd Airborne, Fifth Air Force, he participated in 14 the Philippines campaign in 1944.
 15 In September of that year his transport
 16 plane was shot down over a little island called Biak
 17 and he was only one of three survivors of that crash 18 and was unconscious for 14 days on the island when an 19 islander found him. He suffered serious burns over 20 most of his body and a fractured skull and was 21 unconscious for two weeks. Damage to his arm nearly

1 resulted in an amputation.
 2 And I can tell you that throughout my life
 3 my father downplayed all of his injuries. We grew up, 4 his friends, some of them had arms; some of them
 5 didn't. Some of them could walk; some of them
 6 couldn't. And back then if you lost an arm in the war
 7 you had a hook, you know, if you lost a hand. It was 8 very different.
 9 While in the Army-Air Force hospitals he 10 earned his General Education Development certificate,
 11 the GED, and after being discharged in 1945 he enrolled
 12 at the University of Maryland, College Park. He earned 13 his law degree in 1949 from the University of Maryland 14 School of Law. And afternoon passing the bar he 15 established a general practice of law on Saint Paul 16 Place in those two buildings right there by the 17 viaduct.
 18 In 1952, my wonderful Uncle Ray -- who I
 19 also want to pay tribute to this afternoon -- Uncle Ray
 20 joined the practice but Uncle Ray also died this year.
 21 And they created the practice Callegary & Callegary.

1 His wartime injuries led him to a life dedicated to 2 vets. His life was dedicated to public service. And 3 in 1965 he became the National Commander of the 4 Disabled American Veterans, and in that year he was 5 also named Maryland Veteran of the Year.
 6 In 1967 President Johnson appointed my 7 father to the United States Veterans Advisory 8 Commission which conducted hearings in all 50 states
 9 concerning veterans' rights and resulted in many laws
 10 supporting veterans. His commission work led to two 11 trips to Vietnam as well as journals to the Far East, 12 North Africa, Europe, the Arctic and the South Pacific.
 13 And in 1969 our mother of six children died
 14 in a car crash so Claude ended up raising six children
 15 ranging in age from 6 to 18 or 19, I guess. I was a 16 teenager.
 17 As a result of his participation in the 18 National Committee for Labor Israel Histadrut and the 19 Jewish War veterans, he attended conferences in Israel 20 addressing the needs of wounded soldiers there. He 21 served as an advisor on veterans affairs to Presidents

1 Nixon, Carter, George H.W. Bush and Bill Clinton. And 2 I got to go to the White House a couple times. My 3 first time was at the White House for breakfast with 4 President Nixon. Kind of fun.
 5 He loved his family, which included six 6 children, eight grandchildren, seven great 7 grandchildren. Before he died he was delighted to 8 learn that my son Henry -- front row, Mom, embarrass me 9 -- would be starting law school. So he got to hear, he 10 knew that Henry was going to be starting law school and 11 would be the third generation of lawyers to attend 12 University of Maryland Law School and that he had been 13 selected to be a leadership scholar. So I am so 14 grateful for this opportunity. Thank you very were 15 much.
 16 MR. LAZZARO: Thank you very much, Ellen.
 17 Wilber C. Jensen was a gentle man and a gentleman and 18 always seemed to have a smile on his face. He was a 19 master of estate administration. And honoring him and 20 remembering him today is his partner, Mr. Alexander 21 Hassani.

1 MR. HASSANI: Good afternoon, members of 2 the judiciary, members of the bar, assembled family and 3 friends of our late colleagues. I am Alex Hassani, one 4 of Wilbur's partners in the law firm we founded in 5 1988. That was over 25 years ago, when Wilbur at the 6 time was 64. Wilbur practiced continuously until age 7 89, when his final embolus over took him last fall. He 8 had been a member of the Maryland Bar for over 60 9 years, since his admission in 1952, quite an 10 accomplishment.
 11 Many lawyers are remembered as successful.
 12 How many times have we heard the phrase, "he was a very 13 successful -- " and then you fill in the blank -- trial
 14 lawyer, real estate lawyer, and in Wilbur's case,
 15 estates and trusts lawyer. So used the term successful 16 is generally understood to mean financially successful 17 but in Wilbur's case everyone who knew him well would 18 surely define Wilbur's success in much higher terms.
 19 His truest success was that he was the ultimate mentor 20 to younger lawyers. Wilbur had a fabulous way of 21 teaching without condescending, criticizing without

1 offending, and always providing encouragement and 2 motivation to do better.
 3 Every young lawyer who worked with Wilbur
 4 remembers his famous red pencil, the red pencil
 5 notations that were all over the first draft. The 6 paper usually looked like it had been dropped on the 7 floor of a pizza sauce factory. Invariably, Wilbur
 8 would almost apologetically explain all his recommended 9 changes and then conclude with a rousing great job.
 10 And the way he said it with his ever-present warm smile
 11 you actually believed it.
 12 An ex-law partner, Tom Marrow, 25 younger
 13 than Wilbur, tells the ultimate Wilbur mentoring story.
 14 Both Tom and Wilbur were avid runners in their younger 15 days. They participated frequently in marathons. In 16 the early stages of a particular Baltimore Marathon, 17 perhaps around mile two, Tom began to pass Wilbur. Of 18 course, Tom figured out that he would not see the 19 much-older Wilbur again until perhaps they had both 20 crossed the finish line.
 21 So as Tom passed he cheered Wilbur on with

1 a, "Way to go, Wilbur." Some time later after Tom was 2 pretty tired out and very close to the 26th mile
 3 finish, he quickly looked over his shoulder and noticed 4 the tall, white-haired, lanky figure approaching from 5 behind. Wilbur blew past him shouting, "Way to go, 6 Tom." Wilbur, ever the mentor, was again offering 7 encouragement. Of course, Wilbur was waiting at the 8 finish line for Tom when he finally arrived.
 9 I would like to think that Wilbur looks 10 down upon all of us every day still offering his 11 support and encouragement to do our best. Hats off to 12 you, Wilbur, and your very successful time on this 13 earth. You have left a legacy in the many others that 14 you have taught and inspired. Hopefully they will 15 follow your lead and do the same for the next 16 generation. "Way to go, Wilbur." Thank you.
 17 MR. LAZZARO: Thanks, Alex. One of the 18 Kings of the West Side was Charles E. Kountz, Jr., who 19 was just a really nice guy if you knew him. And 20 speaking on behalf of Charlie today is Richard Vincent.
 21 MR. VINCENT: Members of the Bench, ladies

1 and gentlemen -- that doesn't work. I just do that so
 2 you'll have some hope. I got to the know Charlie -- I
 3 don't know all the information that you've heard about 4 all these other lawyers but I know Charlie. I became 5 the director of the Lawyer Assistance Program in 1980
 6 something or other, '1, and Charlie eventually got on 7 the committee and we became good friends. I'm sure
 8 that you all had some good friends. I got to know 9 Charlie. We played golf together. He was of 10 invaluable assistance to me as the director of the 11 Lawyer Assistance Program.
 12 I can tell this now. Charlie was a 13 recovering alcoholic and for years and years came to 14 the Thursday afternoon meeting of Lawyer Assistance 15 Recovering Alcoholics. He helped many, many, many 16 young lawyers change their direction and become good 17 lawyers.
 18 Charlie got married again. And his wife
 19 became interested -- I'm sorry Elizabeth isn't here -- 20 became interested in golf as Charlie was. And, as you
 21 might suspect, she got better than he and ended up

1 being and is now or will be again when the season
 2 begins, the chairman, the director of the golf
 3 association for the college. She's a very good lawyer
 4 and is sorry she couldn't be here with you.
 5 I know that you know what a friend is but I
 6 wonder how often you have thought specifically about 7 what a friend is, your friend. And I got a definition
 8 of my own of what a friend is. Long years ago it was a 9 guy that would take me in, feed me and clothe me and 10 his wife wouldn't care. You had to add that last one 11 in there. We played golf and became good friends.
 12 Charlie was -- I know you have a list of people that 13 you consider friends, two, three, five, maybe even 14 more. They may even be written down but they are what 15 you consider friends, close friends.
 16 And Charles Kountz became that to me, a 17 dear, dear friend that assisted me in the program of 18 lawyer assistance for the Bar Association. I don't 19 know if you know but he was, as I said, he was a good
 20 golfer and came to the committee and became chairman
 21 and worked with many of the people that you now know

1 that were recovering alcoholics. We're a special
 2 group -- we think we are -- because we have recovered
 3 from a deadly illness and our major project is to help
 4 others. And I'm sure that many of you know folks like 5 Charlie that helps recovering alcoholics. Thank you.
 6 MR. LAZZARO: Thank you, Richard.
 7 Everybody liked Charlie, that's for sure. Russell J.
 8 White was like a second father to myself and to my 9 brother. He was a phenomenal trial lawyer. And when 10 Russell White collaborated with Joe Murphy, a "dream 11 team" was born. Russ's long-time partner, dear friend, 12 and a man on who is a mentor to many of us in this 13 room, the Honorable Joseph F. Murphy, Junior.
 14 JUDGE MURPHY: Thank you, Glen. May it
 15 please the court, Honorable Judges, distinguished 16 elected officials, family and friends of the wonderful
 17 lawyers we speak of this afternoon, I am very grateful
 18 to the Committee for the request that I speak on behalf
 19 of my former partner and a friend to so many people 20 here.
 21 Russell J. White was born in St. Louis,

1 Missouri. And one of his grammar school and junior 2 high school classmates was a fellow by the name of 3 Early Weaver. I suspect some of you know who 4 Mr. Weaver was and some of you may even have had 5 dealings with him from time to time.
 6 Russ was enrolled and studying at the 7 University of Missouri when he met a beautiful young 8 student at Stephens College in St. Louis who was from 9 Hagerstown, Maryland. He and Jan fell in love and 10 married. Russ joined the Army, was commissioned an 11 officer during the Korean War and served as an 12 instructor in the service out in California.
 13 He came to Maryland when Jan returned and 14 enrolled in the University of Maryland Law School. He 15 graduated in 1957. And the class of 1957 of the 16 University of Maryland Law School is maybe the most 17 storied class ever to graduate from that school. It 18 included Lowell Bowen, extraordinary lawyer, who was 19 Chair of Black and Decker for many years and counsel;
 20 Charles Yumkas, Judges Bob Gerstung, Gerry Wittstadt --
 21 I could go on and on -- and maybe two of the finest

1 trial lawyers ever to graduate, Arnold Weiner and 2 Russell J. White.
 3 Russ had a cup of coffee, I think, at 4 Venable, Baetjer & Howard and then decided he would 5 rather get involved in litigation and he joined the 6 city State's Attorney's Office, where he and Charlie
 7 Moylan and Glen's dad and Bob's dad, Bob Lazzaro, did 8 the heavy lifting in that office for several years.
 9 Russ ultimately went into private practice for awhile 10 in Baltimore City with Glen's father, Bob, and 11 ultimately came up to Baltimore County.
 12 He ran for State's Attorney in 1966.
 13 That's the year Governor Agnew was elected Governor of 14 Maryland but Governor Agnew's coattails didn't extend 15 down to the Office of the State's Attorney and Russ
 16 lost the election to a State's Attorney whose name you 17 might remember, A. Samuel Green, Junior. But Russ was 18 appointed a trial magistrate and a few years until the 19 District Court went out on the books replacing the old
 20 Municipal Court of Baltimore and the trial magistrate
 21 system, Russ was the trial magistrate in Cockeysville.

1 In the meantime he was sharing office space
 2 with Mike Lambros and establishing himself as one of to 3 the finest, the finest defense attorney in the State.
 4 Russ's clients included -- I think maybe it was the 5 first major case, highly publicized case he had -- he 6 represented a former classmate of that storied 1957
 7 class at University of Maryland Law School, a fellow
 8 named Ernie Young, who was accused of shooting a State 9 senator.
 10 The case was removed to Harford County,
 11 where Russ won a jury trial, won an acquittal. Russ
 12 became very friendly with many of the Harford County 13 luminaries, including Judge Albert Close and Judge C.
 14 Stanley Blair, who later served on the United States
 15 District Court for the District of Maryland.
 16 Shortly thereafter, Russ went out to 17 Harford County again, to try to defend a fellow by the 18 name of Tom Bruno, who was accused of killing a young 19 man down on the Block. Once again, Russ won the case.
 20 Now, Russ's most famous case, the one for 21 which he received national acclaim, involved the

1 snowball murder case where Russ represented a gentleman
 2 by the name of Roman Welzant, who was tried here in 3 Baltimore County and acquitted on June the 30th, 1980
 4 of the murder of a young man whom he confronted after 5 the young man and several other people were throwing 6 snowballs at Mr. Welzant's house.
 7 Other cases include a case out of Carroll
 8 County -- and this is true. Russ defended a fellow who 9 had killed a man and the defense was self-defense. It 10 was a tough case for the defense because the evidence 11 showed that the defendant reloaded his gun and fired a 12 second round into the victim. Russ won an acquittal in 13 that case.
 14 He represented a Baltimore City police
 15 captain named Dennis Mello on two occasions in Federal 16 Court in the early seventies after there were a number 17 of prosecutions of police officers and lottery
 18 operators. It wasn't, it wasn't "okay to play" back
 19 then. And the Vice Squad made cases against bookmakers 20 and lottery rights. Dennis Mello, captain of the 21 Western District, was I believe the only defendant of

1 the series of people charged who was acquitted. And he 2 was acquitted twice. I remember in the second case 3 there was a double jeopardy issue which one of the 4 judges over in Federal Court simply blew aside, 5 probably shouldn't have been tried again but it didn't 6 bother Russ much. He won an acquittal in the second 7 case.
 8 Another case he tried in Federal Court
 9 really didn't get a lot of publicity, except the 10 lawyers who were sort of following things down in the 11 City and in Federal Court, was a defendant by the name
 12 of Robert Michael Wilson, also known as Pete Wilson.
 13 Now, Wilson was charged with transporting stolen 14 securities across State lines and he was arrested in 15 Maryland.
 16 Wilson's defense was quite unique. Wilson, 17 by the way, is rumored to have been the person that 18 killed the Boston Strangler when the two of them were 19 confined in a prison up in Massachusetts. Wilson was a 20 pretty serious person. Wilson's defense was, "I am
 21 serious criminal. I commit serious crimes. This crime

1 is entirely beneath me. I would never stoop to commit
 2 as petty a crime as carrying securities."
 3 Another thing that made it a little 4 difficult especially for him in the case was at one
 5 point Wilson threw a water pitcher across the room.
 6 Nobody's sure whether he was trying to hit the federal 7 judge who was presiding in the case or the prosecutor,
 8 Joe Keel -- who was at one time the County attorney out
 9 here -- whether he was trying to hit Keel or the judge.
 10 But, in any event, Wilson was acquitted.
 11 I asked Russ one day, "How did you get 12 Wilson off? I mean, it's such a ridiculous defense."
 13 He said, well, when he on the stand talking about he 14 was a serious criminal rather than a petty criminal, I 15 asked him if he memorized the names and addresses of 16 all of the jurors and he answered that question in the 17 affirmative. "I thought I had a good chance to win the 18 case."
 19 I had the privilege of practicing law with 20 Russ from September of 1976 to August of 1984. And I
 21 see Richard Karceski here this afternoon who joined

1 forces with Russ thereafter. It was a wonderful
 2 experience. He was a wonderful person and he was known
 3 to so many people here in Baltimore County. But 4 another thing about Russ that always impressed me was 5 he was a wonderful ambassador for the Baltimore County
 6 Bar.
 7 And I guess I attended 25 or 26 judicial 8 conferences over my checkered career as a judge and at 9 every one of them judges from all over the State would 10 come up to me. They would seek me out and say, "Joe, 11 how is Russ doing? Give him my best. What a great 12 lawyer." You know, "What a great person." Judges from 13 the Eastern Shore, Southern Maryland, Western Maryland
 14 all over the place. That is Russell J. White. That 15 was Russell J. White. And I guess I would like to 16 conclude by thanking Jan for bringing him here so we 17 could observe the excellence of his work as a lawyer
 18 and enjoy the pleasure of his company as a wonderful 19 human being. Thanks very much.
 20 MR. LAZZARO: Thank you so much, Judge. We 21 have one last speaker today, Mr. Joe Lyons, who

1 actually taught me criminal law in law school. I don't 2 even know if you remember that. Joe is speaking on 3 behalf of his partner, Joseph J. Wase.
 4 MR. LYONS: Thank you. Members of the bar,
 5 Judge Cox, Judge Williams, Jude Tirabassi, members of 6 the judiciary, relatives of the deceased and guests, I
 7 should say Glen called me today. It's our second 8 conversation with him. I'm not quite as easy on giving 9 talks about people as some of the other people who have 10 talked today but I have prepared for Mr. Wase. And I
 11 knew him very well so I didn't have to do too much.
 12 And so Glen called me and I said "Glen, I understand I 13 can talk five minutes." He said no. Judge Turnbull 14 says two minutes." But then he made that sound a 15 little better because he said well, Judge Turnbull
 16 isn't there anymore and Judge Cox will be there.
 17 Starting off with that, Mr. Wase -- I don't 18 know why I'm calling him Mr. Wase at this time but he 19 was several years older than me so I guess I'm giving 20 him that respect. He was born in Baltimore City -- and 21 there's Mr. Wase's family here and if I'm wrong about

1 any of these things I'll be corrected afterwards.
 2 He was born in 1933. He was a City College
 3 graduate. He attended St. Johns' in Annapolis. He 4 graduated from the University of Baltimore and was 5 admitted to the Maryland Bar in 1963. He practiced a 6 little time before I knew him in Baltimore City but 7 after that he then went to the State's Attorney's 8 Office for Baltimore City.
 9 I think we must have been one half of a
 10 generation after -- who Judge Murphy was talking 11 about -- the ones that carried the heavy lifting. We 12 took over. Well, I hope we took over. But the reason 13 Mr. Wase, the reason Joe went there was because there 14 had been a new State's Attorney elected and the State's 15 Attorney that had -- and I don't -- I wasn't from 16 Baltimore either. I think Judge Moylan was the 17 previous State's Attorney. There was an election
 18 between when he was appointed to the Court of Special 19 Appeals and Milton Allen won. Now, Milton Allen was 20 the first African-American State's Attorney of a major 21 metropolis. Joe Wase, if you didn't know it, was very

1 active in civil rights for years and therefore he went 2 there.
 3 This was one job that Joe really loved. I
 4 went there approximately the same time without knowing,
 5 coming from Washington not knowing anything about 6 Baltimore or anything about law. We were State's 7 Attorneys together there for quite some time. And 8 since -- he stayed there five years. It's a job he 9 absolutely loved.
 10 Now, because I have a little bit more time
 11 I think I can tell this story about him, because I'm 12 the last one. He left and if you say he loved it so 13 much, he said, "Well, Joe" -- Joe Lyons -- "why would 14 you say he left?" Well, the reason he left was this.
 15 There was a new administration coming in and anytime 16 you have a new administration come in people have to be 17 replaced and new people have to fill them. I was chief 18 of the trial division. Joe was an attorney and when 19 the new administration came in at some point he was 20 told you're going to have to leave within a certain 21 period of time.

1 Well, Joe didn't like that because he just 2 wanted to be an assistant State's Attorney. So I was 3 his supervisor. If anybody, if any of you know Joe 4 Wase -- I say this seriously -- who could supervise Joe 5 Wase? Joe Wase was 3 -- Joe Wase at that time was 6 maybe 250 pounds but just back from Israel, I think, at 7 that point, or soon, there, and was very muscular. But 8 I tried to supervise him but I had am more important 9 job to do for Joe because he knew he had to leave the 10 State's Attorney's Office because it was a new 11 administration.
 12 And so we would talk about it and I said,
 13 well, Joe, I'll tell you what I'll do. I can assign 14 murder cases to you. And so I would assign him one
 15 murder case one week and I would assign another murder
 16 case the next week -- and maybe I'm embellishing this a 17 little bit -- and he would win them. And all he had to 18 do was keep anonymous. He didn't have to do anything 19 else and everybody would have forgotten about him. And 20 that's the way it went for I think three to four 21 months.

1 Then one day Joe was in the back row of old
 2 Courtroom 4, if any of you know where Baltimore City
 3 is. The defendant was being tried and that defendant 4 was convicted and when he was convicted instead of 5 going quietly he darted out the back door. Well, he 6 bolted out the back door but he didn't bolt fast enough 7 because Joe Wase was sitting in the back row, jumped 8 up, tackled him and to his chagrin they began to take 9 pictures.
 10 Then the next day in the Sunpapers there's 11 a picture of Joe Wase on top of this person and stories 12 about it and it came, I think, to the attention of the 13 powers at be at that time that he was still there
 14 and so soon. As I say, I might have embellished it 15 just slightly but that's the way, that was pretty close 16 to it.
 17 Now, after he left the office, State's 18 Attorney's office, he continued to love that office 19 really and he would organize reunions of the State's 20 Attorneys and the entire staff. I think he did it at 21 ten-year intervals and they were remarkably well

1 attended. But then he did, he went to practice, he'd 2 begun to practice with me. So he went to Harford
 3 County, then we got together in Baltimore City.
 4 And then he did one of the very best things
 5 that he ever did. He married Ann Turnbull. If you
 6 knew Joe Wase and you knew Ann Turnbull -- I don't know 7 why anybody would laugh at that -- but if you knew Joe 8 Wase and you knew Ann Turnbull, they aren't going to 9 last a week.
 10 My wife and I lived on a farm. Joe brought 11 Ann out. Joe, who is disorganized, and Ann completely 12 organized, completely correct in everything, they were 13 just more in love than you could possibly have seen.
 14 My wife and I said they'll never last a week. Now, 15 that's the wife who has been divorced from me for about 16 15 years. But Ann and Joe have been married since 17 1979, which is 35 years and they have been a remarkable 18 couple.
 19 Joe marrying Ann also did some wonderful
 20 things for me because Joe and I had a nice little firm.
 21 I did a lot of criminal in those days and Joe did all

1 domestic. Well, since he was married to Ann Turnbull,
 2 who was a partner at Frank Bernstein, why wouldn't it
 3 be great for our firm if Ann came and joined us? And 4 that's exactly what she did. And she brought in her 5 clients. She brought in a good work ethic and she just 6 made it a really nice firm for a number of years. I
 7 see Mary Sanders. She was there for a while. I see 8 Randy Wase; she was there. Stacy Siegel was there.
 9 And that's lawyers. What we really had an 10 abundance of was secretaries. And the reason we had 11 secretaries was because nobody knew how unorganized Joe 12 Wase was unless you were there. And these secretaries 13 would come in all very competent and probably I would 14 interview them or maybe Ann would and we'd say, "Now, 15 this man is a little bit difficult to work with. He's 16 not organized." "We don't care. I worked for Mr. X
 17 before. I straightened him out in a week." Well, 18 these people got straightened out. The secretaries,
 19 they lasted about 30 days. Ann would be telling me 20 that Mary who was there at that time doesn't have any 21 idea how many secretaries we ran through for that

1 reason.
 2 Anyway, it was a very pleasurable time in 3 the firm at that time. Joe retired sometime in the 4 late 1990's and continued to work in pro bono work,
 5 which he'd always liked, and he worked for CASA,
 6 Court-Appointed volunteer, Special Advocates, I think 7 for Children, I think, but he kept doing that all his 8 life after he was retired as long as he can.
 9 Now, that's so much about him for legal 10 causes and his legal career. He was just devoted to 11 his family, to the children. He had wonderful clients, 12 who were maybe somewhat different than some of the 13 other clients we heard about today. Joe took us over 14 to a house one time to meet this client. And I know
 15 his name but I shan't say it. The client invited us 16 for dinner but before he took us out to dinner he took 17 us down his basement and said, "I'm building this music 18 room."
 19 Well, the trouble with the music room was 20 he was building it under the street, digging out from 21 his house. And he wanted our approval of that. And

1 maybe we could have given it but the only thing I knew
 2 was some criminal law; Joe did domestic and we couldn't 3 help him on that.
 4 Joe's had a variety of friends for years.
 5 He's been, everybody would, it certainly makes no sense
 6 at all but I was thinking about when I was coming home.
 7 It's like the Statue of Liberty, "Give me your dredges.
 8 Give me your poor. Come to me." And that's what Joe 9 did. He would make a wonderful Statue of Liberty 10 because people just came to him and he would help them.
 11 So after that he was also involved very 12 much in the civil rights movement in the sixties. He 13 was chairman of the Baltimore County Congress of Racial 14 Equality, CORE. He did many of the marches we remember 15 about it in the sixties also.
 16 He was also a founding member of something 17 called the Baltimore, the Saturday Morning Club. This 18 was started by Joe Wase and a judge named Judge Robert 19 Watts. And they met every Saturday and still meet 20 every Saturday -- without Judge Watts and without Joe 21 Wase, unfortunately -- to discuss things. And their

1 great pride is that they discussed every issue but they 2 never reached a decision on anything, never decided 3 anything.
 4 Also, you wouldn't know it about Joe,
 5 either, that Joe has not only been a lawyer but he's 6 also an author. He wrote three books. He wrote --
 7 now, I say he wrote three books. Ann's got to take a 8 little bit of credit on this because she did, she 9 helped on two of them. But back in the 1970's he wrote 10 a book on the federal gun laws. In 1980, Ann and Joe 11 together wrote and published the Blows of Circumstance 12 and finally Joe and Ann, as you know, I'm sure most of 13 you know -- Domestic Relations, Forms and Practice.
 14 So he's had, Joe had a passion for living.
 15 He was a very big man. He was very big at heart. And,
 16 as I say, he was unabashedly supportive of anyone who 17 he thought had not been treated correctly. He will 18 certainly be missed.
 19 JUDGE COX: Thank you for the Memorial
 20 Minutes from all of those who presented. Responding 21 from the bench is the Honorable Phil Tirabassi.

1 JUDGE TIRABASSI: Thank you, Judge Cox. It
 2 is a privilege to honor the memory of these lawyers who 3 have gone before us. Our courts, sitting in concert
 4 here today, are extremely proud to be part of this 5 memorial celebration. We wish to thank each of our 6 speakers for regaling us with their tributes to the 7 memory of our most respected honorees.
 8 We thank, too, each of the families and 9 family members for the sacrifice that your loved ones
 10 made on behalf of the Baltimore County Bar Association.
 11 Because of the legal careers of each of our deceased 12 honored here today, our Association has strengthened in 13 numbers, strengthened in ability and strengthened in 14 professionalism.
 15 These attorneys have literally changed our 16 lives. They've advanced justice through our changing
 17 landscape. These lawyers who we revere here today 18 advanced justice by dedicated their lives to providing 19 well-researched, well thought-out, sound legal advice
 20 and counsel to their clients. They taught us not only 21 to be proficient in the law but in our personal lives

1 as well.
 2 To a man each of the attorneys gave of 3 themselves unselfishly to their families, community and 4 civic organizations. We owe Jim Beach, Claude
 5 Callegery, Wilbur Jensen, Charlie Kountz, Russ White 6 and Joe Wase an obligation to carry on their efforts in 7 the pursuit of excellence in the law, to carry on their 8 contributions to our profession and to our clients.
 9 Today we call upon all are members to honor
 10 each of these fine men with a rededication of our oath 11 we all took upon admission to the bar and the 12 rededication to the principle of professionalism that 13 they so well exemplify. If we look at our Association 14 we are truly noted throughout the State for our 15 civility in what is typically considered an adversarial
 16 profession.
 17 This memorial brings us together as dear
 18 friends and family which almost never occurs in a 19 professional organization. It is an association of 20 professionals who actually care about, learn from and 21 suffer the ups and downs of practice with our

1 colleagues who, by the way, are our friends. The 2 Baltimore County Bar Association lives on strongly 3 because of the dedication and commitment of those who 4 have gone before us, especially the honorees here
 5 today. We have lost giants in our profession who had 6 had long and distinguished careers. They have left us 7 with the highest standard to uphold: dignity, honor, 8 and integrity. Thank you.
 9 MR. LAZZARO: Thank you, Your Honor. I
 10 would like to thank everyone for attending today. I 11 would like to thank the committee for putting this 12 together, for everyone who participated. Thanks to 13 Doris and everybody in the bar office for all their 14 hard work. Judge Williams, at this time it's my honor 15 and privilege to formally move that the minutes of 16 these proceedings be transcribed by the court reporter
 17 and made a permanent part of the history of this court.
 18 JUDGE WILLIAMS: That would be grand.
 19 MR. LAZZARO: Thank you, Your Honor.
 20 JUDGE WILLIAMS: Mr. McCurdy?
 21 MR. MCCURDY: I'm T. Wray McCurdy. I'm

1 President of the Baltimore County Bar Association. On 2 behalf of the Association I would like to thank the 3 families and friends of the honorees for allowing us to 4 share with you this afternoon and these speeches and 5 these memories. Perhaps it is a function of the 6 closeness of one to somebody who passes to the sense of 7 loss. In other words, if it's your father, mother, 8 sister, brother or spouse, that person is so immeshed 9 in your everyday being and everyday fabric that when 10 they're gone that loss is so overwhelming and 11 devastating that it just takes a long time for that to 12 be replaced.

13 We hope on behalf of the Association that 14 this afternoon at least brings you some modicum of 15 solace through this. And in saying that as a member of 16 the Association, thank you for allowing us to be a part 17 of this. Because when, I mean, starting with Jimmy 18 Beach in 1948 when he's at Washington College his first 19 roommate was my father. I mean, Claude Callegary, 20 whenever I'm going across the Orleans Street Bridge and 21 I look to my right and I see his name.

1 I mean, Wilbur Jensen is a pioneer of the 2 AB-rated people that decided it was okay to leave the 3 city and come out to the county and spread the wealth.
 4 And we appreciate that. Charlie Kountz was a guy that 5 knew how to run a neighborhood practice on the West
 6 Side and was a mentor to people like me who thought it
 7 was okay to get out of 21204 and go practice somewhere
 8 else. Russ White was a guy that taught me to not be 9 afraid to try a case no matter what the other side 10 said. Joe Wase was a titan and got me Joe Lyons, which 11 I appreciate.

12 So, for each of you, thanks you so much on 13 behalf of the Association for allowing us to share this 14 with you. And please realize that this is a mutual 15 exchange and we are forever in your debt for you 16 allowing these people to be a part of our lives because 17 they're a part of it and they still are because they 18 all have influenced the decisions and the career paths
 19 that we have made. Thank you.

20 JUDGE WILLIAMS: Thank you everyone for 21 your attendance at this important event. Is there a

1 motion to adjourn?
 2 MR. McCURDY: So moved.
