1 PROCEEDINGS
 2 JUDGE TURNBULL: On behalf of Judge
 3 Williams, who is the Administrative Judge of the 4 District Court, myself, the Circuit Court judges, the 5 District Court judges, we welcome you here today to our 6 annual memorial service for our brothers at the bench
 7 and the bar who have passed away during the past year.
 8 We appreciate your coming. And with that I would like 9 to have Mr. Glenn Lazzaro, who is Chairman of the 10 Memorial Committee.
 11 MR. G. LAZZARO: Thank you, Your Honor. I 12 believe the first order of business today would be the 13 Invocation, to be delivered by the Honorable Stephen 14 Wyman. Judge?
 15 JUDGE WYMAN: Good afternoon, everyone.
 16 Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be a 17 resting place along the road to sweet eternity. We all 18 have different journeys, different tasks along the way.
 19 We all were meant to learn some things but never meant 20 to stay. Our destination is a place for greater than 21 we know. For some the journey's quicker, for some the

Page 7

1 journey's slow. When the journey finally ends we'll 2 claim a great reward and find that everlasting piece,
 3 together with the Lord.
 4 Oh, God, we gather humbly before you this 5 day to remember our brothers. We thank you for 6 bringing them into our lives that we might know and 7 love them as companions on our earthly pilgrimage. In 8 your boundless compassion comfort us as we remember as 9 mourn once more and as we celebrate lives well-lived, 10 yet too soon ended. Give us faith to see in death the 11 gate to eternal life so that in quiet confidence we may 12 continue to run our course on earth until by your call 13 we are united with those who have gone before us.
 14 MR. LAZZARO: Thank you, Judge Wyman. Good
 15 afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. My name is Glen 16 Lazzaro and I am the Chairman of the Memorial and 17 Recognition Committee for this calendar year. I would 18 like to thank everyone for showing up today and 19 attending this meaningful celebration of life of the 20 nine individuals who are being memorialized today. It 21 is an honor and a privilege for me to be able to

1 present speakers who will remember today's proceedings.
 2 And I want to remind everyone that there is 3 a transcript that will be made of this entire 4 proceeding and if anyone would like a copy of that,
 5 they can contact Doris Barnes at the Bar office after 6 today and arrange to receive a copy. Our first speaker 7 today is Melissa Moyer Adams, who will be speaking on 8 behalf of her father, the late John Moyer.
 9 MS. ADAMS: The first thing, I want to say 10 hello to everybody, so many that I have not seen in 11 quite awhile, so more did my dad. I know that he would 12 love to be here now, if he could, especially just to 13 visit with a lot of you that he did practice law with.
 14 And Dad goes back a long way. I believe he was law
 15 clerk to Judge Turnbull, Senior, and it was before 16 Judge Turnbull, Junior, I think was even practicing 17 law. So he was here a long time. Very proud of that 18 picture of he and the other Association members when he 19 first started practicing and they had that picture, I
 20 think 1965 or something. But he was always very proud 21 of that.

1 I know that he enjoyed being a member of 2 the Bar Association and loved his life of lawyering.
 3 And one thing, though, I wondered if any knew that my 4 dad actually said that he never wanted to be a lawyer;
 5 he would rather have been a high school football coach
 6 or something like that because the kids and the sports
 7 meant so very much to him, as did his family.
 8 And I think probably a legacy that I think 9 a lot would agree with of my dad's would be his 10 legendary parties. He would have some really good 11 Christmas parties and he would invite all who would 12 want to come because that's the way my dad was.
 13 And so I thank you for allowing me to be 14 able to say a few words on his behalf. I feel honored 15 and privileged to have been able to practice law with 16 him. And I miss him. So thank you for allowing me to 17 say some things and I'm glad to see so many of you.
 18 Thank you.
 19 (Applause)
 20 MR. G. LAZZARO: Thank you, Ms. Adams. The 21 second individual to be memorialized today is Mr. Larry

1 Lockhart. And unfortunately after an exhaustive search 2 we were unable to find anyone to really speak for 3 Mr. Lockhart. He doesn't have any family left in 4 Maryland and the couple of individuals who we were able 5 to notify were unable to make it here today. So I'm 6 going to present some biographical information about 7 Mr. Lockhart, although I did never meet him.
 8 He was born on September 9th, 1932. He was 9 a lifelong resident of the Baltimore area. He 10 graduated from Western Maryland College in 1955 and 11 later the University of Maryland Law School in 1960.
 12 Mr. Lockhart passed the Maryland Bar in 1960 and worked 13 for a number of years at the State Department of 14 Assessments and Taxation in the City. Later he 15 established a private practice in the Catonsville area 16 and practiced pretty much for the rest of his life in 17 that area.
 18 He was a member of the Baltimore County Bar 19 since November of 1976. He was a member of the 20 Maryland State Bar and also admitted to the United 21 States Federal District Court. Larry Lockhart died on

1 October 12th of 2011, at the age of 79 years old.
 2 Speaking on behalf of Bryan J. Akman is 3 Mr. Henry Belsky.
 4 MR. BELSKY: If it please the Court, Bryan
 5 Akman was my friend. He died too young. He was 55.
 6 But having said that, he led a blessed life. He was a 7 great husband, father and son. They loved him and he 8 loved them. He also was a great lawyer. He had a blue 9 collar practice representing the rank-and-file members
 10 of the UFCW and others who really needed 11 representation, adequate representation even if they 12 couldn't afford it.
 13 He tried hard. He had a unique practice,
 14 however. His practice, he had no clients. When you 15 went to see Bryan you weren't a client. You were a 16 friend. As you all know, when we represent a friend we 17 try a little harder. Bryan always tried a little 18 harder. We will miss him a lot but his loss will be 19 tempered by the legacy he left behind in the form of 20 two sons, both lawyers. And both I'm sure will follow 21 in his footsteps, practicing blue color law. And those

1 that needed him had the best advice available. So
 2 their family is here, Terri, Alvin, Matt, Marion, and 3 the third son, Jared. And I'm proud to call him a 4 friend. I'm proud to be part of their group.
 5 (Applause)
 6 MR. LAZZARO: On behalf of Kenneth Masters
 7 today speaking is his former partner, Brian McFarland.
 8 MR. McFARLAND: Before I speak about Ken, I
 9 would like to say that I did sort of know Larry 10 Lockhart. Larry was a character. That's the best, 11 that's the thing you can say about Larry. He always 12 had a smile. He was always friendly to meet on the 13 street, always had a joke for you, always had a horse
 14 for you if you wanted it too. So I just wanted to say 15 that on Larry's behalf.
 16 I met Ken when I was a teenager. He and my 17 father practiced together. I joined him in practice 18 and practiced with him for about close to fifteen 19 years, I think it was. Ken was a servant of the State, 20 of the people of his community. He served his 21 community as a lawyer. He served his community in the

1 House of Delegates for sixteen years. He was, as 2 former Governor Ehrlich said, a legislator's 3 legislator. He did not want to deal with politics even 4 though he was a politician. He wanted to deal with the 5 process. He felt -- and I think everybody will 6 appreciate it here -- that there should be more lawyers
 7 in the legislature. That's not a common thought around 8 but that's what he felt.

9 And he made sure as a lawyer that laws were 10 passed properly. It wasn't about what was right, it 11 wasn't about what this side of the aisle wanted or that 12 side of the aisle wanted, it was about what was right.
 13 He also served his State under Governor Ehrlich. He 14 was not popular with some of the Democrats. He was a 15 lifelong Democrat and he crossed the aisle. It didn't 16 matter to him. What mattered was that Maryland got 17 what they deserved.

18 Ken also served his country. He served in 19 Vietnam. And the whole time I knew him he never spoke 20 about it. It was only after his death that I found
 21 out just how highly decorated he was, earning a Bronze

1 Star. His wall was adorned with all of his diplomas,
 2 all of his certificates. Even his notary certificate
 3 was framed. But there was nothing about Vietnam. The 4 fact was that he didn't want to talk about it and after 5 his death you would hear things, the fact he was so 6 proud that he never lost a man the whole time under his 7 command.

8 Ken in his personal life was a devoted 9 family member, devoted Catholic and definitely devoted 10 Irishman. He loved his Irish beer. He had a great 11 sense of humor and he loved to spin yarns. His last 12 couple years were very difficult but it was never about 13 Ken. When you saw him it was how are you doing, how 14 are things going, how is the family, how's your kids.
 15 One of his last wishes was not a funeral home or not 16 viewing, it was an Irish wake. In that way people 17 could be like Ken. They could do what Ken liked to do, 18 have a beer, talk and laugh and tell stories. Thank 19 you very much.

20 (Applause)

21 MR. G. LAZZARO: Thanks, Brian. On behalf

1 of the Moose, G. Warren Mix, Mr. Jim Farmer.
 2 MR. FARMER: Chief Judge Turnbull, Judge
 3 Williams, Judge King and associate judges, it's a 4 pleasure once again for me to speak on behalf of G.
 5 Warren Mix, the Moose. I have been instructed to kind 6 of tone down my comments from my last memorial service 7 that we had at the courthouse. And for those that 8 didn't attend that, this is the third one that we are 9 having for Mr. Mix.

10 Judge Turnbull, through a couple of the 11 other attorneys, Mike Lawlor, Doug Sachse and myself, 12 we asked him to have a memorial service for Warren at 13 the courthouse. And when Judge Turnbull first thought 14 it was a great idea, he was going to do it in his 15 courtroom and then he realized that that couldn't 16 happen. And I believe we had it in -- this is 17 Courtroom 5 -- the biggest courtroom we have that was 18 over at the Circuit Court and it was standing room
 19 only. I think there was a judge maybe had a jury trial 20 that was being, it was underway. They probably didn't 21 attend but most of the judges were there. Every clerk,

1 the bailiffs, the sheriffs were all there to honor
 2 Warren.

3 His memorial service at Saint Paul School
 4 was packed to the rafters. It was a hot day. And even 5 Governor O'Malley came and spoke on Warren's behalf.
 6 He was late but he made it down and gave a great talk.
 7 His best friend spoke that day. And I'm not going to 8 go into a lot of background but his best friend, Joe 9 Boylan, gave a great background of Warren, where he 10 grew up in Pikesville, Milford Mill High School. He 11 was an All-Maryland baseball player, basketball.
 12 Washington College, he was an All-American in baseball.
 13 Back then it was all Mason Dixon but he was quite an 14 athlete. And he returned to Maryland, worked for the 15 probation department, was in law school, married the 16 love of his life, Virginia, and four children quickly 17 came along.

18 If you didn't know Mr. Mix, or the Moose, 19 you sorely missed a wonderful, outstanding person and 20 attorney. He truly was loved and admired by everyone.
 21 He practiced and walked these halls -- if I was over

1 there I meant walking those halls -- for 45 years. And 2 he practiced in every county in this State. Every 3 judge, every prosecutor, every law clerk, every 4 bailiff, every sheriff knew him.

5 When John and I were practicing together, I
 6 mean he would go to Cumberland for a speeding ticket, a 7 20-mile-over speeding ticket. He would come back from 8 Cumberland and have a couple of tickets or a couple of 9 cases in Towson, a typical day of Warren Mix, or a 10 typical week. He would leave for Ocean City on a 11 Friday. He would come back 5 o'clock Monday morning.
 12 He would have two cases in Essex. He would have three 13 in the Circuit court. He would come back for lunch.
 14 He would go back to Towson, two cases, and then he 15 would probably go to Howard County, Carroll County,
 16 Harford County for a Circuit Court case, a settlement 17 conference or something like that.

18 He was truly on the go, 24 hours a day. He 19 would get back to the office at 5 o'clock and he would 20 have, the clients would be waiting out the door waiting 21 for him to come and be interviewed. I quite frankly

1 don't know how he did it. He practiced, up until his 2 passing or up until he finally, his health really 3 started failing but he was keeping a full schedule on a 4 full docket.

5 I said it early-on in my other talk on his 6 behalf how much he loved his family, especially his 7 children, his grandchildren, his wife. When I say he 8 traveled the State and the County for his clients, he 9 never missed a game of any of his children, and his 10 children went to school all over, in Ohio,
 11 Pennsylvania, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania and Richmond.
 12 All of them played sports. He was there. In the 13 recent years he had eight grandchildren; he was going 14 to every event that he could possibly go to except for 15 the ones out in California. And if he could have done 16 that he would.

17 I put in order what he loved. He loved his 18 family. He loved the practice of law. He loved Ocean
 19 City. He loved golf. And I don't know which order 20 that would go in, whether he liked golf more than 21 anything else but he had a great following of the

1 attorneys here. He had a foursome down in Ocean City,
 2 that was a regular way back in the old days and I
 3 believe it was Judge Maguire, Judge Brennan -- I don't 4 know who the fourth was next but they had a regular 5 golf and outing every weekend he would go down and he 6 would play golf.

7 I miss him every day and I loved him
 8 dearly. And I asked Judge Bollinger if he would read a 9 letter. After his memorial service I came to the 10 office one day and there was a letter under the door.
 11 And, it was, it just said everything about him. And I 12 couldn't, I can't read it. So, if I would ask, would 13 you come up, Judge Bollinger, please, and if you would 14 read the letter. I'm going to end it. I really 15 appreciate everyone coming, all the family members. I 16 greatly appreciate it and thank you very much. Judge, 17 Bollinger.

18 JUDGE BOLLINGER: May it please the Court
 19 and Judge Turnbull, I'm glad that since I left the 20 active bench here that you got a promotion to Chief 21 Judge. I'll let Judge Carr know that. This is the

1 letter, ladies and gentlemen.

2 "Dear Mr. Mix, this correspondence is being 3 sent to you with a sincere overdue, heartfelt thank you
 4 for your insight to see beyond the surface of a person.
 5 There have been several decades since our paths 6 crossed, and the impact you have created in my life has 7 been significant. Your decision to represent a poor, 8 inner-city child when others were ready to just be done 9 with me has allowed me to become one of the most 10 respected law enforcement officers of Baltimore County.
 11 For that I say thank you.

12 "You may not remember me but I would like 13 to refresh your memory of a time in life that I will 14 never forget. As a juvenile in July or August of 1974
 15 I was arrested for armed robbery, battery and assault.
 16 Although I had not committed this crime I was unable to 17 convince others of my innocence. Being arrested of the 18 crime in October of that same year I was appointed a 19 Public Defender to represent me. Before the court I 20 was tried and found to be a delinquent. The case was 21 appealed and I was sent to Maryland Training School and

1 held there for 30 days.
 2 "After serving the 30 days I was released
 3 to a new program, community detention program. At this 4 time my family had very little money to support our 5 family and was very distraught over the events. To our 6 comfort we had a relative who knew you and contacted 7 you. Thankfully you agreed to provide counsel for 8 little to no compensation." That's typical Moose.
 9 "As counsel I again thank you but I want to 10 tell you, when you approached the Master and 11 convincingly argued how I deserved a chance, finally 12 you got him to agree and placed me on home detention 13 provided I took a polygraph test. And the stipulations 14 of the test were if I passed all charges would be 15 dismissed and if I failed I was promised to be sent 16 away for a long time. After several months had passed,
 17 I was administered the exam and I recall you saying I 18 passed with flying colors.
 19 "Finally, after reappearing in court the 20 delinquent findings were dropped and I was released.
 21 These events inspired me to pursue the path that I

1 chose as a Baltimore County police officer. Because of 2 you believing in me, on June 18th, Year 2012, I will 3 begin my retirement from the Baltimore County Police 4 Department after 31 years of service on the Force. As 5 you continue in your career" -- I think Warren had died 6 by then -- "if ever presented with the question of why 7 you defend those cited as guilty, please use me as an 8 example of how you have changed my life. The job you 9 have done for over the past 30 years is honorable and 10 again I say thank you. Thanks to you I will forever be 11 known as Retired Officer James Barr, Number 2612 of the 12 Baltimore County Police Department. Sincerely."
 13 That's typical Moose.
 14 (Applause)
 15 MR. G. LAZZARO: Is Sister Therese Feeley
 16 here? Did she make it back? Paul Feeley, Paul? Did 17 your aunt make it?
 18 MR. FEELEY JR.: I don't see her.
 19 MR. G. LAZZARO: Okay. Would you like 20 to --
 21 MR. FEELEY JR.: Sure.

1 MR. G. LAZZARO: On behalf of Paul Feeley,
 2 Senior is his son, Paul Feeley, Jr.
 3 MR. FEELEY JR.: Thank you. My father
 4 recently died at the age of 86. He practiced law in 5 Baltimore County for 50 years. He started in 1960 with 6 Lee Harrison and another gentlemen I can't remember.
 7 The only problem was at 6 o'clock Lee Harrison and his 8 friends had to break for Happy Hour while my father had 9 six kids under ten and a wife at home. So that didn't 10 last too long.
 11 He was a State's Attorney for a couple 12 years and ran against Newell, I believe the man's was 13 in '62 and lost. He was in private practice from '62
 14 to '71, when he was appointed Public Defender in 15 Baltimore County. He was out here for, till 1984, '85.
 16 I can't remember exactly. I know a lot of people that 17 are have said something since he died that he helped 18 them start out in practice. You all kind of had the 19 same words. He sent a lot of work to Judge Williams.
 20 As a matter of fact, he was the cheapest guy in town as 21 far as paying is concerned, I'm telling you that.

1 There's my aunt. You want to come up, Sister?
 2 SISTER FEELEY: Sure. I'm sorry. I was 3 just in Dundalk and there was an accident on Exit 31.
 4 MR. FEELEY JR.: This is my father's 5 sister, Therese Feeley.
 6 SISTER FEELEY: Right.
 7 MR. FEELEY JR. She's the youngest of his 8 sisters. Go ahead.
 9 SISTER FEELEY: Let me catch my breath.
 10 Not only was I late, I couldn't get in the door.
 11 (Laughter)
 12 Okay. I really look forward to this 13 afternoon, the opportunity to talk about my brother, my 14 youngest brother. Paul J. Feeley, Senior had two 15 brothers and four sisters. And we all came from a 16 loving, faithful family. And I thought the best thing
 17 to do would be to take the letters of his first name
 18 and build my remarks around them. P -- Paul was a 19 person for others. If he were here he would say he 20 learned that at Loyola High School and college. They 21 were the first male teachers he ever had. And from

1 them he learned about justice and service and good
 2 living. And he practiced that. He honed those virtues
 3 through his entire life. Even though in high school he 4 was quite a cut-up, and in college he was known as a 5 mischief maker, with a small "m", but still his values
 6 were high and he believed in the Jesuit motto, "Be a 7 Person for Others."
 8 A -- Paul was authentic. He was ten years
 9 younger than I and yet I remember how excited he was 10 when taking first-year Latin. He would say to me, "I 11 bet you don't know the real meaning of the word 12 sincere." And I would offer some lame definition and 13 he would say, "Oh, no. Sincere comes from two Latin 14 words, sine, which means without, and cera, which means 15 wax." So to be sincere means to be without wax."
 16 And I looked at him naturally, oddly, and 17 he said, "Let me explain. In the Middle Ages food was 18 bought in an open market and some unscrupulous persons 19 would take fruit and cover it over with wax to hide the 20 flaws and the imperfections. So in the marketplace you 21 could see signs on the fruit that said sine cera,

Page 26

1 without wax." That was Paul. He was who he was. No
 2 affectation, no phoniness.
 3 U -- I wonder what I could use for U.
 4 Unpretentious, unpretentious. The dictionary gives you 5 two definitions of unpretentious but the best one is 6 simply the word authentic. So he was handsome and a 7 good player of basketball in college. So? So, he was 8 president of Loyola Alumni Association for several 9 years. So? So he sent his three daughters to go to 10 prep and his three sons and the two boys that came with 11 Anna Barthelme, second marriage, all college graduates.
 12 So? He was the first public defender in the State of 13 Maryland. So? Paul was who he was, unpretentious, 14 unaffected, humble.
 15 And the last one, L -- loyal. I think most 16 people in this room recognize the fact that he was no 17 fair weather friend, my brother Paul. He stuck with 18 people through the thicks and thins of our journeyed 19 life. He was true to his friends. He was as helpful 20 as he could be. Witness the Poker Club, men with whom 21 he played poker since the seventh grade every other

1 Thursday night for almost seven dance. Loyal. He was 2 loyal to his friends. He was forgiving to his enemies.
 3 He was loveable. Paul Joseph Feeley, Senior, a person
 4 for others. Authentic, unpretentious and loyal.
 5 (Applause)
 6 MR. G. LAZZARO: Thank you very much,
 7 Sister. And we appreciate the great effort you went to 8 to get here today. Thank you.
 9 SISTER FEELEY: You're welcome.
 10 MR. G. LAZZARO: On behalf of Paul Redmond
 11 is his former partner, Stan Hellman.
 12 MR. HELLMAN: May it please the Court, Paul 13 Redman passed away on May 21st, 2012, at the 14 all-too-soon age of 63, just a few months after being 15 diagnosed with cancer. Paul was Baltimore born and 16 bread, receiving his education at Parkville High School
 17 and University of Baltimore undergrad and law school, 18 passing the Bar in 1976. He grew up with three 19 brothers with whom he remained close, as well as his 20 cousin, Charley Lewis, with whom there was a lifelong,
 21 constant, well-intentioned exchange of good-natured

1 barbs.
 2 Before hanging out his shingle he worked at 3 Sears on North Avenue, selling sporting goods. This 4 store was at the same location now occupied by the 5 District Court on North Avenue. He regaled us all 6 frequently that he tried cases in a courtroom located 7 at the precise location where he had once sold Ted 8 Williams a fishing rod. Later on, he worked at 9 Maryland National Bank until he made his plunge into 10 private practice shortly after passing the Bar.
 11 My association with Paul goes back to 1977.
 12 I was working for the late Jules Lichter and Don 13 Rogers, who had rented a suite of offices on the fifth 14 floor of 305 West Chesapeake Avenue. There were a 15 couple of empty offices and through word of mouth Paul 16 came to rent one of those offices. Within a year we 17 decided to strike out together and had variables levels 18 of association for the next 34 years, including having 19 Judge Larry Daniels as a partner for a number of years,
 20 and a large variety of tenants ranging from Dale 21 Anderson Magistrate Judge Paul Grimm.

1 Through that one-third of a century I
 2 learned that in addition to being a good lawyer, Paul's 3 greatest asset was developing genuine relationships for 4 his clients. There was a saying around the office, 5 "They all come back." And they did all come back to 6 Paul. Generally he became a client's lawyer for life.
 7 His even demeanor resulted in his clients having 8 confidence in him and following his recommendations.
 9 In that same one-third of a century I can 10 say that we never had a disagreement except maybe where 11 to go for lunch. Paul was a generalist who, when 12 confronted by an area of law with which he was not 13 familiar, quickly taught himself what he had no know.
 14 He was comfortable in all the courts of the State, 15 including arguing cases before the Court of Appeals and 16 the Court of Special Appeals.
 17 He was a devoted father to his twin 18 daughters, Erin and Carly. Erin, who just got married 19 a couple of weeks ago, made sure that her fiance Mark
 20 asked Paul for permission for her hand even though Paul 21 was extremely ill at the time. Although Paul and his

1 wife Janice divorced, they remained very close friends,
 2 to the extent that she was by his side at the end.
 3 Paul would talk about the trick pulled by 4 Janice and her obstetrician when showing him the first 5 sonogram from her pregnancy. Paul was not told that 6 Janice was expecting twins. The doctor showed Paul the 7 sonogram and said, "Now here's the baby's head and 8 here's the other head." It took a moment for it to 9 dawn on Paul that there were twins there.
 10 Later on, Paul enjoyed traveling with a 11 group of friends to attend sporting events such as the 12 Indianapolis 500, several ACC basketball tournaments 13 and several Super Bowls. Pulse greatest legacy to his 14 daughters is that I know that there is absolutely no 15 one who would have anything negative to say about him.
 16 That is the mark of a life well lived. Thank you.
 17 (Applause)
 18 MR. G. LAZZARO: Thanks, Stan. On behalf
 19 the Honorable Paul Dorf, speaking today is Jerald 20 Lurey.
 21 MR. LUREY: May it please the Court. After

1 a short illness, Judge Paul A. Dorf died on July 5th, 2 2012 at the age of 86. Paul done every was one of the 3 few individuals in our profession who could truly be 4 designated as a lawyer's lawyer. During his 5 outstanding legal career he held many official 6 positions and served them all with distinction, ranging 7 from Assistant Baltimore City Solicitor, Chief Judge of 8 the Baltimore City Traffic Court, Maryland State 9 Senator and Associate Judge on the Supreme Bench of 10 Baltimore City, now known as the Circuit Court for 11 Baltimore City.
 12 Paul was also very much a people-person.
 13 It was his custom to search for and find the good in 14 all people, treating everyone with respect and dignity.
 15 He had the magical ability to positively interact with 16 people and leave them clearly liking him. When he was 17 on the Bench all counsel and litigants knew that they 18 would have a fair and impartial hearing even if Paul 19 ultimately ruled against them.
 20 Paul retired from the Bench in 1983, and 21 joined the law firm now known as Adelberg, Rudow, Dorf

1 and Hendler, as a full partner. His practice focused
 2 on family law and complex civil litigation. He was a
 3 frequent lecturer on these and other legal topics, 4 sharing both his knowledge and insight with members of 5 the Bench and the Bar. In recent years after 6 recognizing the way in which matters were adjudicated
 7 needed to change, he handled private alternative 8 dispute resolution hearings, known always ADR, for 9 litigants, helping them find a faster and less 10 expensive way to settle cases.
 11 Paul was consistently recognized by his 12 peers for being at the top of the legal profession, 13 earning multiple citations for excellence in the law,
 14 and he was chosen year after year as one of the best 15 lawyers in America for ADR. Paul also enjoyed serving 16 as a mentor to members of the legal profession, ranging 17 from judges to law students. His strong spirit of 18 collegiality, high ethical standards, energy and 19 enthusiasm for the practice of law became clearly 20 contagious to all who met him. I know this first-hand, 21 having had the privilege of practicing law under and

1 with Paul's guidance and counting him as my friend and 2 mentor for almost 30 years.
 3 Today we remember Paul for the fine
 4 individual he was, for the large number of people who 5 he positively influenced, for his respect for and love
 6 of the law and for the many acts and deeds of kindness,
 7 no matter how large or small, which he willingly
 8 performed and without hesitation. At this memorial 9 service are Paul's widow, Helene, and members of his 10 family, friends and his in law partners. Their 11 presence here today in honoring Paul's accomplishments 12 and legal career will remain a source of comfort to the 13 Dorf family. Thank you.
 14 (Applause)
 15 MR. G. LAZZARO: Last but not least today,
 16 our final speaker, on behalf of the Honorable Alfred 17 "Big Al" Brennan is Al Brennan, Junior.
 18 MR. BRENNAN: Thanks, Glen. May it please
 19 the Court. Al Brennan, Senior, Judge Brennan, Big Al,
 20 my dad. Who was this man? First and foremost he was a 21 family man. He was the seventh of nine children. He

1 had six children of his own and he had sixteen
 2 grandchildren. He loved having family together. He 3 took time from his busy schedule to attend his children
 4 and grandchildren's scout meetings, football games,
 5 dance recitals and swim meets.
 6 One tradition he was fond of was our annual 7 vacation in the Outer Banks, where all thirty of us
 8 would come together for a week. He wanted to see that 9 his family was succeeding in their lives and was always 10 there was to hear his children's and grandchildren's 11 concerns and give his advice. He was a devout Catholic 12 who truly lived his faith. While will he was on the 13 Bench he would go to Mass every morning before court.
 14 His faith allowed him to get through the tough times in 15 his career and in his life.
 16 He was a great organizer and loved to tell
 17 people what to do. If he had not passed the Bar exam, 18 he might have been a great event planner. He organized
 19 golfing and tennis and bowling events for the Bar
 20 Association. While in Settlement Court he implemented
 21 holiday gift-giving for children in Kernan Hospital.

1 He organized many fishing trips on the Chesapeake Bay.
 2 The rockfish population in the Chesapeake should come
 3 back now that he is not around to coordinate fishing 4 trips.
 5 (Laughter)
 6 He had a reputation for his honesty and his 7 generosity. He loved to have fun and he was always 8 thinking of different ways to entertain himself and 9 others. He loved Ocean City, boating and fishing. We 10 always told him we would rather go catching with him 11 than fishing because when we went fishing with him we 12 never caught anything. He was an avid poker player, 13 whether it was playing with his grandchildren or 14 leaving his friends of their money.
 15 He loved people. He spoke to everyone and 16 listened to their stories. He was open and accepting 17 of all types of people, no matter what their beliefs, 18 religion or way of life may have been. He always had a 19 joke and took great delight in telling them. His laugh 20 and smile were contagious. His personality attracted 21 many friends.

1 He was innately curious and was always
 2 reading and learning. He thrived on seeking something 3 new. He practiced law for 28 years, before being 4 appointed Judge of the District Court, and later to the 5 Circuit Court. He took the time to listen to the 6 people who came before him so he understood their 7 problem before he would make a decision. He used his 8 common sense to render a verdict or sentence. He was 9 genuine, humble and unassuming. His love of his family 10 was only surpassed by the love for his wife, Marjorie.
 11 There will never be another Big Al. Thank you.
 12 (Applause)
 13 JUDGE TURNBULL: I want to thank all the 14 speakers today. In responding on behalf of the Bench, 15 the Honorable Justin J. King.
 16 JUDGE KING: Administrative Judge Turnbull,
 17 Administrative Judge Williams, assembled Judges, family
 18 and guests, good afternoon. I am honored to speak on 19 behalf of the Bench on this most solemn occasion. I am 20 gratified by the attendance of so many members and 21 families, friends and colleagues of those distinguished

1 members of the Bar who passed away during the course of 2 the last year. Please allow a moment as we wish to 3 thank Doris Barnes, Rachel Ruocco and Maxine Morrow as 4 well as the members of the Memorial Committee and its 5 Chair, Glen Lazzaro, for the time and hard work that 6 they have devoted to this incredibly important 7 occasion.
 8 The solemnity of these proceedings is a 9 fitting tribute to the lives and careers of our 10 compatriots of the Bar. This annual gathering allows 11 us to remember the great qualities that these men 12 possessed and exhibited, not just in their lives as 13 lawyers but as family members, leaders in their 14 communities, and role models to others. Although we 15 mourn than their passing we join together and reflect 16 upon their unique attributes and their contributions to 17 the advancement of society by their active 18 participation in the very best traditions of the law.
 19 Members present here today and who spoke 20 about their friends and relatives have regaled us in 21 numerous stories about the nine men we have

1 memorialized but we leave here knowing that those we 2 honored today served our community conscientiously, 3 selflessly, with dignity, grace and civility. Their 4 professional and personal accomplishments are 5 impressive. All were loved by family and friends and 6 all will be remembered with respect and affection. On 7 behalf the Court, I extend to you best wishes to you
 8 and your families for the upcoming holidays, and please 9 leave here knowing that may the peace that comes from 10 the memories of love shared comfort you now and in the 11 days ahead.
 12 JUDGE TURNBULL: Thank you, Judge King.
 13 (Applause)
 14 JUDGE TURNBULL: Mr. Lazzaro will present
 15 the Memorial Resolution.
 16 MR. G. LAZZARO: Thank you, Your Honor.
 17 Again I want to thank everyone for showing up for 18 attending today. Thanks to all the speakers. Thanks
 19 to Judge Turnbull, to Judge Williams. Thanks to Judge 20 Wyman for the Invocation. Thanks to Judge King for the 21 response from the Bench. Very special thanks to Doris

1 Barnes, who worked very hard to assist the Committee in 2 today's event.
 3 Also, thank you to the Committee itself,
 4 Herb O'Connor, Vice Chairman; Jennifer Aist; Rebecca 5 Fleming; Kris Howanski; Chris Malanga; Neal Brown; 6 Kevin Carr and Bruce Friedman, all of whom helped the 7 Committee immensely. Also thanks to Gore Brothers 8 Reporting for their service today in transcription. At 9 this time, Judge I would like to move that the 10 proceedings today be transcribed and made a permanent 11 part of the record of the Circuit Court for Baltimore 12 County.
 13 JUDGE TURNBULL: Motion is so granted.
 14 MR. G. LAZZARO: Thank you, Your Honor.
 15 JUDGE TURNBULL: Concluding remarks by the 16 President of our Bar Association, Robert W. Lazzaro.
 17 MR. R. LAZZARO: Administrative Judge
 18 Turnbull, Administrative Judge Williams, Judge King,
 19 distinguished Judges of the Circuit Court and District
 20 Court for Baltimore County, distinguished retired 21 Judges, members of the Bar, family and friends of the

1 deceased, who we honor today. On behalf of the 2 Baltimore County Bar Association I want to extend my 3 sincere thanks for your attendance in honoring these, 4 our fallen members, and they were an impressive list of 5 men, as Judge King so aptly stated. I want to thank 6 Glen Lazzaro and the Memorial Committee for putting 7 this together, for all of their efforts, which were 8 tireless.
 9 It has been said that the life of a man can 10 be measured by the tribute that is paid to him upon his 11 death. If that be the case, then truly this list of 12 nine men were very successful. Two were past 13 presidents of this Bar Association. You heard a lot 14 about their unique characteristics and what they 15 brought to not only our profession but to our personal 16 relationships that many of us had with them. Many of 17 these individuals were not only colleagues but personal 18 friends of mine. They have all left their unique 19 footprints on our Association and our profession. We 20 are a better Association and a better profession 21 because of them. They will be sorely missed but they

1 will never be forgotten. Thank you. And with that,
2 Judge Turnbull, I would move that these proceedings be 3 adjourned.

4 JUDGE TURNBULL: The motion is granted.

5 Court is adjourned.
