POLICY

Inmate Attire for Trial

Effective September 1, 2016, the Baltimore County Sheriff's Department and the Baltimore County Division of Corrections will implement a change to the policies concerning civilian clothing changes for inmates brought to the Circuit Court. Inmates will be transported to and from the Courthouse in their jumpsuit. If an inmate is appearing in Court before a jury, the inmate will be permitted to change into civilian clothes. Civilian clothes can be provided by counsel to the Sheriff's Office. All clothing will be processed through the x-ray scanner and hand searched for contraband before it is given to the inmate. The clothing shall be picked up by counsel or a family member from the Sheriff's Office upon the conclusion of the trial.
